CONFIDENTIAL 13 July 1957MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence 2 IMPDET CL BY 061790SUBJECT: Replies to Questions Prepared by the Special
CIA Subcommittee of the House Committee on Appropriations

1. Herewith are two binders containing the preliminary draft replies prepared in answer to the questions handed to you by Mr. [redacted] on 26 June 1957.

2. We believe you will be particularly interested in reviewing the proposed answers to the following questions:

- 1 & 2 - Concerning the Reserve for Contingencies
- 23 - Operations within the Soviet Union
- 24 - Justification of accomplishments to date.
(This is the most comprehensive and sensitive question of all. Replies by both DD/I and DD/P are presented separately in view of the differences between their operations.)
- 25 - Productivity of operations outside the Orbit
- 26 - Activities in Egypt
- 28 - Analysis of intelligence gathering methods
(Here also separate papers by DD/I and DD/P are presented.)
- 29 [redacted]
- 30 [redacted]

In addition, questions 31, 32, 33, and 34 may be of interest, although not as important as those listed above.

3. Unfortunately, a few replies involving statistical data and cost figures are not as complete as we would wish. Some additional work will have to be done on these basic responses included herewith. The only question on which we do not have any response at the moment is #20, which will be ready early next week.
